Member's Declaration

- I want my membership of the BIGPS to stop and I have instructed my employer to cease deducting contribution from my pay from the first available date.
- The benefits I have accrued in the BIGPS up to the date my contributions cease will take the form of a deferred pension in the BIGPS
- If I have to retire early from my current employment through ill-health the benefits paid by the Scheme will be less than if I had not opted out
- If I die in service with my current employer the cash sum payable and any spouse's pension will be less than if I had not opted out
- From the date that my contributions to the BIGPS cease, I will no longer be contracted-out of the State SecondPension
- I will no longer be covered for the lump sum death in service benefit provided by the Scheme*
